2004 ZINFANDEL
HOWELL MOUNTAIN

I would buy this wine just for the scent. It's a combination of fresh herbs that spikes toward peppercorn, juiper and tamer violets. Let it rest in a decanter for several hours and it becomes even more peppery, like a northern Rhône red, only jucier. Air also pulls the flavors out of the potent tannins, the chocolate richness of oak and the luscious fruit so that they develop more savory detail. There's so much going on it's hard to get your head around it, which may be how it seems so sexy.
